

The Orphan Queen

The Story of Esther

A musical by Cantor Robbie Solomon

Directed by Rosalie Gerut and Robbie Solomon

The Orphan Queen is a unique retelling of the captivating Biblical story of Esther. The unfolding events of treachery, love intrigue, and faith are presented in original songs woven together by lively musical narratives. Life is breathed into this ancient tale through inspired performances by Rabbi Moshe Waldoks, as King Ahashueros; David Mitchell, as Haman; Rosalie Gerut, as Queen Vashti; Cantor Robbie Solomon, as Mordechai; and introducing Anika Benkov as Esther. Joining them will be the adult and children's choirs of Temple Isaiah and Congregation Kerem Shalom, and a wonderful jazz ensemble led by keyboardist David Sparr.

Saturday evening, March 22nd, 7:30 PM

Kerem Shalom, 659 Elm St. PO Box 1646, Concord, MA 01742

Tickets sold at the door—for more information, please call the temple administrator at 978-369-1223 or email ksadmin@keremshalom.org.

Sunday afternoon, March 23rd, 2:00 PM

Temple Isaiah, 55 Lincoln St., Lexington, MA 02421

For ticket information, please call 781-862-7160, or email the temple office at office@templeisiah.net.

Sunday evening, March 23rd, 7:00 PM

Temple Beth Zion, 1566 Beacon St., Brookline, MA 02446

For ticket information, please call Jeralyn in the TBZ office at 617-566-8171, ext. 14, or email office@tbzbrookline.org

Tickets are $12 for adults, $6 for children 12 and under

Seating for all shows will be on a first-come, first-serve basis, with the doors opening 40 minutes prior to each performance.